

Key Vocabulary for this term.

defend	To keep safe from danger
enemies	Those who want to hurt others
attack	Trying to hurt or defeat others
flexible	Material that can bend
rigid	Material that cannot bend permeable	Material that lets water in impermeable	Material that does not let water in medieval	Describes a period of time in history weapon	An object used to hurt someone
Once upon a time	Words used to begin a fairy tale

Important facts about castles

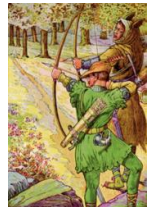

- The main building was called a keep.
- The first castles were built by the Normans. They were Motte and Bailey Castles.
- The first castles were made of wood and then they went on to use stone.
- Castles were built on hills so they could see enemies coming.
- Some people who lived in the castles were; kings, lords, knights, squires, jesters and gong farmers.

Important people to research

King Henry VIII

Robin Hood

St. George

Exciting texts to read!

Traditional Tales

(e.g. Hansel and Gretel, Rapunzel, The Ugly Duckling, The Emperor’s New Clothes, The Princess and the Pea)

Fairy Tales with a Twist

(e.g. Super Red Riding Hood, Jack and the Incredibly Mean Stalk, Goldilocks and the Wolf)

The Paper Bag Princess

The Boy Who Grew Dragons